

Scenes from the Shop

The twisted shafts are what make the scratch awls shown at right stand out. What's even better is you only need a few minutes to create each twist. For more information, turn to page 34.

